

Forklift Safety Training and Certification

for Dealership Employees

Tuesday, November 5 in Strongsville

Due to accidents, deaths, and property damage, Federal law mandates that anyone operating a forklift must successfully participate in formal training and receive proper certification. The Dealership, as the employer, is responsible for OSHA Compliance for all forklift operators. Your Association is conducting Forklift Safety and Certification Training to help your dealership abide by OSHA standards through employee education.

This course will include:

- OSHA safety requirements
- Causes of forklift accidents
- Understanding the dynamics of the forklift
- Pallet safety
- Maneuvering ramps
- Daily inspection checklists
- Individual driving tests

Who Should Attend?

Any dealership employee who might operate a powered industrial truck

Seating is Limited

Because of space limitation, seats will be reserved on a "first to register" basis with no exceptions.

Please note, the location of the training is:

Serpentini Chevrolet of Strongsville
